

Whatever stage you're at, you can move forward today...

You are just getting started

Questions you have

Actions you can take

Results you can expect

You have commitment. budget and you know what you

What is a management system? What will it do for us? What do I need to do?

Get Leadership buy-in Conduct a baseline assessment Develop an implementation plan Management commitment Identified gaps and action plan Resources to enhance maturity need to do

You are building a management system

How do I make sure it covers all requirements and risks? How do I implement it? How do I get company-wide buy-in and engagement?

Design your framework and processes Map important requirements to existing programs and processes Develop a robust implementation plan including training and rollout activities

Clearly defined governance, roles and responsibilities Company-wide implementation Measured performance improvement

Your management system is implemented, and employees are on-board

You are actively improving your management system

How do I incorporate new requirements and emerging risks? How do I get more buy-in and engagement? How can we get better results?

Map all requirements to existing management system and data Assess governance and implementation Improve strategic planning, risk, performance and assurance programs

Audit results show requirements are being met and risks are being mitigated Action plan to enhance maturity Robust processes and management i system baked into the company

Your management system is efficient and generating results

SPAN'S 4 STAGE IMPLEMENTATION PROCESS

INITIAL GAP ASSESSMENT AND PLANNING

MANAGEMENT SYSTEM DESIGN

MANAGEMENT SYSTEM IMPLEMENTATION

IMPROVEMENT AND SUSTAINMENT

IMPLEMENTED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM!

SPAN has the team, toolkit and experience to help you implement your management system. Contact us today to book your free consultation.

